SECTION B: (50 Marks)

51. Read the passage below and answer the questions that follow in full sentences.

It was a Wednesday night when a four year old girl, little Sandra went missing. There was a great panic and alarm in the house that her elder sister, Martha started crying non-stop. The housekeeper rushed wildly while shouting out into the garden, hunting behind every bush. Little Sandra's mother sank in her chair weeping, quite sure that her little one had fallen into the well and drowned. When Little Sandra's dad pointed out that the well was very dry, the mother was then sure that she would be lying under the bottom of a broken tank.

As for Martha, she thought that her sister had been kidnapped and that the kidnappers would ask for a large sum of money (ransom) before freeing her. When Little Sandra's father said that, children of the rich parents would be kidnapped in that manner. Martha called him a heartless old man. Meanwhile, the gatekeeper at home was running to and fro stairs searching every room including the cupboard.

Finally and luckily, it was Martha who discovered Little Sandra seated in the store behind its locked door, covered in honey and very happy. Upon seeing Little Sandra, Martha was shocked and overjoyed. She then wiped her tears, gave her sister a warm hug and walked her to the main house to the amazement of the parents and everyone.

DRUGS AND POVERTY

Drugs! Drugs!

All of us endangered by you

Fathers embarrassing you

As they kill useful time

Drugs! Drugs!

Our livelihoods you destroy

Salt no sugar no school fees no

All our money you eat

Death you deserve.

Drugs! Drugs!

Drug addicts - our fathers

merciless they are

Beating our mothers at night

The cause being you

Your death I pray for.

Drugs! Drugs!

Strong I wish I were

Landing you down with a blow

But lucky you are

For I am weak and small

Tomorrow I am big, strong, your end!

Myate Adrian.
