news	an item of news	items of news
information	a piece of information	pieces of information chalk	a piece of chalk	pieces of chalk
advice	a piece of advice	pieces of advice

Note:

When “none” refers to singular uncountable nouns, we have to use a singular verb.

Examples

1. None of this milk is good to drink.
2. None of that advice is dependable.

When “none” refers to a plural countable noun, a plural verb is more common but a singular verb can also be used as “None” can be either singular or plural.

Examples:-

1. None of them is (are) fit to teach
2. None of these shoes is (are) good for me.

Begin: None.....

1. This milk is not good to drink.

| ▪ a hen | |
| ▪ an umbrella | ▪ an idiot |
| ▪ an English teacher | ▪ an engine |
| ▪ an egg | ▪ an idiom |
| ▪ an apple | ▪ an army |
| ▪ an axe | |

A/an the

When you are talking about something for the first time, you use a or an. But when we already know what you are talking about you “the”

Note: Articles should come before common nouns)

Examples

- I have a sandwich and an apple for lunch .the sandwich wasn't very good, but the apple was nice.
- I visited a zoo. At the zoo, I saw an elephant. The elephant was grey in colour.

We use the when we are thinking of a specific thing.

- Jane wrote the article which appeared in the New Vision last week.

Did Paula get the job she applied for.

Exercises extracted from English Grammar in use by Raymond Murphy page
145(Exercises 72.1 and 72.2)

However it is misleading to say that “an” is always used when the next word starts with a e i o u because of exceptions found in the examples below.

- a European
- a University
- a uniform
- a ewe
- a one way street
- a United country
- a union
- an MP
- an honest man
- an honourable Member of Parliament
- an hour
- an x-ray

A. Article “the” is used to define that particular person, thing, place or animal being talked about e.g.

- I met a woman yesterday. The woman was smart

B. Article the is also used in the superlative degree e.g.

- He is the most beautiful girl in our home.
- Many has the best handwriting of the three

C. It is also used before indefinite things e.g

- The moon
- The sun
- The stars
- The ocean
- The pacific
- The red sea
- The Atlantic
- The Rwenzori

Examples:-

- The boy
- The egg
- The axe
- The aeroplane
- The apple
- The pencil
- The pen
- The girl
- The window
- The boy

Article “some” is used with plural countable nouns as well as non- countable nouns. Article “the” can as well used.

Plural countable nouns

- | | |
|----------------|---------------|
| ▪ Some boys | ▪ The boys |
| ▪ Some pencils | ▪ The pencils |
| ▪ Some pens | ▪ The pens |
| ▪ Some girls | ▪ The girls |

Un countable nouns

- | | |
|--------------|-------------|
| ▪ Some sugar | ▪ The sugar |
| ▪ Some juice | ▪ The juice |
| ▪ Some sand | ▪ The sand |
| ▪ Some soil | ▪ The soil |
| ▪ Some fish | ▪ The fish |

Note:

Article “the” is used everywhere. We always use it on nouns we already know very well.
e.g. The man is coming. I know the man by name, by tribe, by colour, by dressing etc
Therefore this article is called a definite article

Exercise

Give the plurals of the underlined words

1. The rebels are fought by the commander – in n- chief.
2. They used a knife to cut the cake
3. The baby was given a spoonful of the medicine.
4. This passer – by has escaped from prison.
5. One tooth – brush was sold in our shop.

Fill the gap with a suitable article. You will use “some” in a few sentences.

6. _____ girl is going to school.
7. _____ orange is being divided among three people.
8. Please sir, can you give me _____ ripe mangoes which cost fifty shillings.
9. _____ dog is being given raw meat.

Simile: as blank as an empty bottle.

Proverb: Two wrong do not make a right.

Reflexive pronouns

These are pronouns that put more emphasis about the doer of the action

Examples are:- myself, oneself, ourselves and others

Formation of reflexive pronouns

Reflexive pronouns are formed from possessive adjective determiners and some objective pronouns

Formation from possessive adjective determiners.

determiner	reflexive pronoun
her	herself
one	oneself
my	myself
your	yourself
it	itself
our	ourselves

Formation from objective pronouns

objective pronoun	reflexive pronoun
them	themselves
him	himself

Number of reflexive pronouns

singular	plural
myself	ourselves
yourself	yourselves
himself	themselves
itself	themselves
herself	themselves

Note:

Sometimes we use (one + self) oneself instead of you, he or she. However, never use it with himself, herself, in one sentence.

Examples

One is always expected to care for herself (wrong)

The right sentence should be:-

One is always expected to care for oneself.

IF SENTENCES

“If” is a conjunction which joins a main clause to an “if” clause.

“If sentences” are conditional sentences. You set a condition which should be fulfilled for a certain result to happen.

Kinds of if sentences

There are three kinds of if sentences.

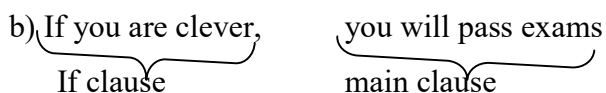

1. If (1)
2. If (2)
3. If (3)

IF (1) SENTENCES

1. If (1) goes with the present tense in the “if clause” and future simple (present) in the “main clause”

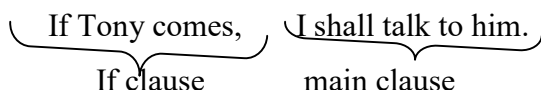

e.g.

a) If I eat dirty food, I shall fall sick.

b)
If clause
main clause

2. If a sentence begins with “if”, the “if” clause is always followed “by a comma”.

e.g.

If clause
main clause

3. If the conditional clause (if clause) come last no comma is required.

e.g.

I will tell him if he comes.

Use tenses to write “if sentences”

There are two ways:-

1. You can be given conditions and results to construct an “if” sentence.
2. You can be given a sentence with a gap to fill in the tense.

Examples:-

Condition

Result

- | | |
|---|-------------------------------|
| 1. His being lame. | His failing to play football. |
| If he is lame, he won't play football. | |
| 2. Nankya's passing P.L.E. | Nankya joining s.l |
| If Nankya passes P.L.E, she will join senior one. | |

Exercise

Write out if (1) sentences (put if at the beginning and middle of the sentence)

1. Kato's being clever. His understanding this topic.
2. My getting got the money. My buying a bicycle.
3. Joseline's finding him there. Her giving him his letter.
4. That man's finding out dirt on his shirt. His complaining.

TOPIC: IF SENTENCES

ASPECT: IF (2)

SKILLS: LISTENING, SPEAKING, READING, WRITING

SIMILE: As rude as bell.

PROVERB: He laughs best that laughs last.

IF (2) IN SENTENCES

“In if (2) we use a past simple tense or past continuous tense in the “if” clauses and a future simple (past) in the main clause, popularly called “would clauses”

Examples

1. If my father had money, he would pay my school fees.
2. If I saw a snake under my bed, I would run away.
3. If I were eating the lion’s flesh, I would be as tough as itself.

Note

In if (2), the condition cannot be fulfilled at all. It is just day dreaming.

In if (2) one is just imagining what would happen if the impossible came true.

Example

1. If I were God, I would leave man to live for ever. (It is impossible for me to become God.)
2. If I were you, I wouldn’t eat posho.

Exercise

Use tenses to write out if (2) sentences. If in the middle of sentences.

1. She would tell you the story if sheyou (see)

2. We would be very surprised if shea dog on her head. (carry)
3. I would buy a bicycle if Imoney. (has)
4. Karakea goal if he was well trained. (score)
5. Youif you told the LC chairman the truth. (arrest)
6. He would be free of AIDS is sheplay sex. (do)
7. He wouldn't have an accident if healong the right side of the road (walk)
8. Theythe exercises if they didn't understand it (repeat)

LESSON II

We often use “were” instead of “was” in order to put emphasis on the nature of the impossibility
e.g.

- a) If he were a snake, he would bite all sinners.
 - b) If I were a teacher, I would not beat pupils.
1. My brother being a teacher, his teaching well. It is possible for my brother to a teacher and teach well but it has been impossible by using it in if (2), here don't change “was” to were.

Answer:

If my brother was a teacher, he would teach well.

Note:

If my brother were a teacher, he would teach well.

2. My brother being a lion, his eating every person.
If my brother were a lion, he would eat every person.

Exercise

TOPIC: IF SENTENCES

ASPECT: IF (3)

SKILLS: LISTENING, SPEAKING, READING, WRITING

SIMILE: As good as gold.

PRVERB: To forget a wrong is the best revenge

IF (3) SENTENCES

If (3) is used in the past perfect tense. The “if clause” takes a past perfect with “had” and the main clause take a future perfect (past) i.e. “would have “clause.

Examples:-

1. If Gwasa had come early, he would have caught the bus (catch)
2. If she had known, she wouldn't have done it. (know)

Formula

1. We use if + past perfect + would have + past participle.

If I had sat for P.L.E, I would have passed.

Had I sat for P.L.E, I would have passed.

In if (3) one is just imaging what would have happened if a certain condition had been fulfilled.

If 3 is used when the chances of the action to happen are over. The action cannot fulfill the condition.

Exercise

Complete these sentences using if (3)

1. Solomon would have survived if hein the bush. (hide)
2. Theyvery many first grades if they had been serious with studies (have)

TOPIC: IF SENTENCE

ASPECT:

SKILLS: LISTENING, SPEAKING, READING, WRITING

SIMILE: As friendless as an alarm clock.

PROVERB: Practice makes perfect.

Using chances to determine "if" sentences

If (1)

A. A sentence can be changed to an If (1) sentence when the chances of action happening are there and are still there.

Example

1. My father promised to buy for me a pair of trousers so that I can be smart on Sunday.
2. If my father buys for me a pair of trousers, I shall be smart on Sunday.

If (2)

B. A sentence will be in if (2) when the chances of the action happening are impossible or have been made impossible.

Example

1. He wants to stop running when he becomes River Nile.

If he became River Nile, he would stop running.

Or:

If he were River Nile, he would stop running.

If (3)

A sentence will be in if (3) when the chances of the action happening were there but are now over.

Example

1. I wanted to buy a radio from the shop but they have closed the shop already.

If they hadn't closed the shop, I would have bought a radio.

Note:-

The past forms of these helping verbs can be used in the main clause of if (2) and if (3)

Helping verb	Past form
may	Might
can	Could shall	Should will	Would

Exercise

Use chances to determine which if clauses and write.

1. Tom came late, so he missed the train.
2. My brother wants to become rich next week and build a bank in Kampala.
3. Don't move at night. Thieves can kill you.

4. He failed to work very hard last year and he didn't get a first grade.

ASPECT: RELATIONSHIP BETWEEN "IF" AND "UNLESS"

SKILLS: LISTENING, SPEAKING, READING, WRITING

SIMILE: As impatient as lover.

PROVERB: One cannot die twice.

The relationship between "if" and "unless"

Unless can replace "if" in a sentence. "Unless" is a negative word. When you want to replace it with "if" then "if" goes with a negative word "not"

i.e.

"Unless" means "ifnot"

1. When there is a negative in the "if" clause, that is eliminated i.e. both if and "not" die away.

Example

- a) If he doesn't come today, you will follow him up.

Unless he comes today, you will follow him up.

2. When the negative is in the main clause, it will be eliminated also with the "if"

Example;

- b) If Kyobe comes early, he won't be locked outside the class.

Unless Kyobe comes early, he will be locked outside.

3. When the negative is in both clauses. i.e. the "if" clause and the "main clause" you eliminate the one in the "if clause"

Example

- a) If you don't disturb that dog, it won't chase you.

Unless you disturb that dog, it won't chase you.

4. Where there no is negative in both clauses, then you create a negative in the main clause.

Example

- a) If we eat all that food, we shall be satisfied. Unless we eat all that food, she shan't be satisfied.

Exercise

Replace "if" with unless.

1. If Kindagano keeps the promise, her friend will be happy.
2. If they don't bring the money, the head teacher will send them away.
3. If she becomes happy, she will dance for us.
4. If he does the work, the teachers won't punish him.
5. If my father doesn't pay school fees, I shan't go to school.
6. If there is a football match at Namboole, we shall attend it.
7. If Nambi doesn't take the money, I shall spend it off.
8. I won't give you the pen if you don't return mine.
9. If the cocks don't crow, they won't wake up.
10. If it doesn't rain, we shall not have food for at least six months.

TOPIC: IF SENTENCES

ASPECT: REPLACING "UNLESS" WITH "IF"

SKILLS: LISTENING, SPEAKING, READING, WRITING

If you don't work very hard, you won't pass exams to P.6
2. Unless Suzan performed better, she wouldn't please her parents.
If Suzan didn't perform better, she wouldn't please her parents.

Note:-

When you replace “unless” with is in a sentence you create negative (not) in the “if” clause and when there is a negative in the main clause, you leave it there.

ExerciseReplace unless with if these sentence.

1. Unless I am a sinner, I shall go to heaven.
2. The choir will not sing well unless it if given some soft drinks.
