12th February, 2012

Dear Peter,

It is good to hear that you have joined the school of your first choice in Kampala. I sincerely felt very happy about that and I send you my best regards.

Here at school I am reading hard so that I join a good school next year. Our teachers hardly give us any breathing space. We get quite a number of assignments. Mr. Ssombo our class teacher says that our school should be the best in the entire district. I got aggregate four at the beginning of term exams. I promise to continue aiming higher for even better scores in every subject. We shall have a trip at the end of first term and we shall visit many parts in the western part of this country.

I invite you to come and study with me in the first term holiday.

Hoping to hear from you soon,

I remain yours ever,

Kiweewa Francis.
