

GANGU MUSLIM PRIMARY SCHOOL
PLE INTEGRATED SCIENCE TIPS 2022

1. Be confident, remain calm, have hope for success.
2. Trust in ALLAH and supplicate often.
3. Carefully read the instructions on the interface of every examination paper and follow them.
4. Read the questions atleast twice and interpret them well.
5. Underline the key words in the questions for proper interpretation of the questions.

6. Give short and precise answers.

For example: why should you wash your hands before eating food?

Answer in the best handwriting

Ans. We wash our hands before eating food to remove germs.

DO NOT REPEAT: we should wash our hands before eating food to remove germs.

7. Write short, clear, undebatable answers. Sentences are not recommended.
8. Interpret the diagrams very well. Do not give names of parts of the diagram, instead we use the letters on the diagram. Name the parts only when instructed by the question.
9. Use of scientific terms is highly recommended other than English ones, be scientific while answering questions in science.

For example: why do some objects float on water?

The correct response is: some objects are less dense than water.

Do not say: they are lighter. The question requires difference in density.

10. Read your answers having answered all the questions. In addition, make sure that you have not forgotten anything or wrongly misspelt the words.

11. For matching questions, please take note of the following

- a. First read the instructions before the list or table.
- b. Read the two sides of the questions that you are required to match.
- c. Understand what they are about and match them beginning from the well-known ones.
- d. Lastly, carefully transfer the words/ statements plus their corresponding words / statements in the space provided.
NB Do not misspell or misfire words / statements.
- e. Manage your time well, carefully and neatly write your answers in the best handwriting you can exhibit.

Conclusion

Please pass science excellently for the greater good. In the end, we shall be more than jubilant.

Wishing you all the best by the will of Allah
